Reference: MODULA-MYRK10

Name: MYRK10 office tables

The MYRK operational table stands out for its generous dimensions and design conceived for open and collaborative spaces. Its wide top allows work teams to gather comfortably, encouraging interaction and creativity. The solid wood legs provide warmth and stability, creating an elegant contrast with the top available in different finishes.

Main materials

Tabletop made of 25 mm thick melamine with 1 mm thick PVC edge.
Side panels made of recycled tropical wood with high dimensional stability and durability.
Central cross members made of rectangular-profile steel tube.

Main features

Structure with solid, elegant and functional design.
Frame available in different versions for individual or group workstations.
Please ask about other available frame variants.
